BC Centre for Disease Control
Provincial Health Services Authority

TIMELINE OF CARE - LATENT TB

What happens when you are taking:
Rifampin

1st Visit

You may see a:
- nurse
- doctor
- pharmacist

Monthly Visits

You may see a:
- nurse
- doctor

*Final Visit

You may see a:
- nurse
- doctor

We will:

Talk about:
- Latent tuberculosis
- Your TB medicine
- Lab work (blood tests) needed

Give you:
- a lab requisition

Answer any questions you have

Up to 1 hour

Talk about:
- How often you take your medicine (it's helpful to bring them in with you) and how they make you feel
- Blood work results
- How you are coping

Answer any questions you have

15 minutes

Talk about:
- How treatment is going
- What happens after you finish your medicine
- If we need to see you again

Give you:
- a card saying you finished your TB pills. Congratulations!

Answer any questions you have
(* The final visit may be by phone)

15 minutes

At least 4 months of medicine and follow-up